

DefenseChain Conference

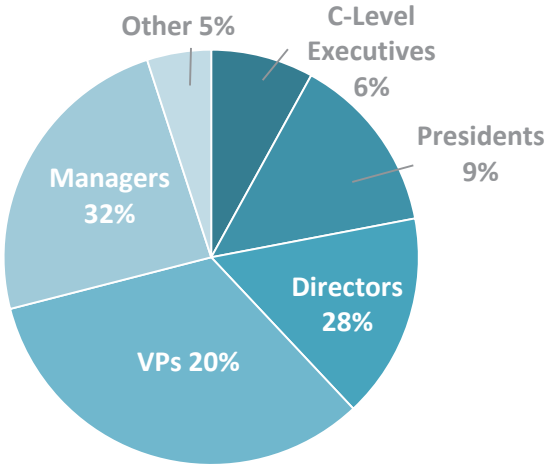

Delegates at Aviation Week Network's DefenseChain Conference will gain vital insight into defense industry spending trends, hear solutions to supply chain issues, and be presented with new industry initiatives. Program outlooks, defense acquisition reforms, and methods to overcome supplier challenges will all be covered during two-days of keynote presentations, interactive panel discussions and networking opportunities. Highlighting this event will be the annual 2018 Program Excellence Awards Banquet, a VIP reception, and two exclusive Aviation Week Network executive roundtables.
